Managers/Coaches

ANDERSON, George L. (Sparky) — DETROIT
Former Second Baseman — Manager

Height - 5:09 Bats - R Born - Feb. 22, 1934, Bridgewater, S. Dak.
Weight - 164 Throws - R Resides - Thousand Oaks, California

Graduated from Dorsey High School in Los Angeles, California in 1952. Named Tigers' Manager on June 14, 1979. Had a nine-year career managing the Cincinnati Reds where he posted a 863-586 mark between 1970 and 1978. Won back-to-back World Championships with Reds in 1975-76, a feat that no manager has accomplished since. Won four National League pennants (1970, '72, '75 and '76) and five Western Division titles (1970, '72, '73, '75 and '76). Has highest winning percentage amont active managers. Only Gene Mauch of the Angels has more victories. Was an All-Star Manager in the Florida State League in 1966 and the Southern League in 1968. Named National League Manager-of-the-Year in 1972, 1975 and won similar honors in the American League in 1984. Became one of five managers in baseball history to win pennants in both leagues (Joe McCarthy, Yogi Berra, Alvin Dark and Dick Williams are the others). Became the first manager to win a World Championship with a club in each league. Also became the first manager to win at least 100 games with a club in each league (1970, '75, '76 with Reds and 1984 with Tigers). Has .555 (479-384) percentage as a Tiger manager. Will manage in his fifth mid-season All-Star Game at Minnesota in 1985. Was the winning manager in three of his previous four All-Star tilts. Has an overall record of 33-17 (.660) in post-season play.

GROTE, Gerald Wayne (Jerry) LAKELAND
Former Catcher Manager

Height - 5:10 Bats - R Born - October 6, 1942, San Antonio, Tex.
Weight - 185 Throws - R Resides - San Antonio, Texas

Attended Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. Signed his first major league contract with the Houston Colts in 1962 and remained in that organization until October 1965 when he was traded to the Mets for pitcher Tom Parsons. Played in Mets organization for 12 years. Once caught a 24-inning game for the Mets in a game at Houston in 1968. Played in 1968 All-Star Game in Houston. Helped Mets win World Championship in 1969 as he played in every game in post-season play. Caught Tom Seavers 19-strikeout game against Padres on April 22, 1970. Was also on Mets 1973 National League pennant winner. Was 4-for-19 (.211) Championship Series vs. Reds and 8-for-30 (.267) in World Series against Athletics. He established World Series records for highest fielding average for catcher in a seven-game series (1.000 with 71 chances) and most chances accepted by a catcher in a seven-game series (71). Was traded to Dodgers on August 31, 1977 for infielder Randy Rogers and proved to be valuable for the Dodgers down the stretch drive helping them win National League pennant. Appeared in two games in Championship Series and one game in World Series. Also played on pennant winning Dodger team in 1978. After being out of baseball for two years, signed with the Royals in April, 1981. Had perhaps the biggest game of his major league career on June 3, 1981 as he hit a grand slam home run (off Ken Clay of Mariners), driving in seven for the game. Re-joined Dodgers for the stretch drive late in the season but did not appear in post-season. Was out of baseball 1982-84. Will make his managerial debut with the Lakeland Tigers of the Florida State League.

Signed by Tigers after a great Detroit prep and sandlot career, leading Northwestern High to city prep title in 1959 and his sandlot team to national title in 1960. Once homered in the upper deck at Tiger Stadium at age 16. Made his major league debut with Tigers in 1963 for a brief time. Became a regular with Tigers in 1965 where he played for 12 seasons. Started in the All-Star game in 1965 and was voted "Most Exciting Tiger" by Detroit BBWAA. Had achilles tendon problem in 1967 which required surgery after the season but hit a career high 36 home runs for the 1968 World Champion Tigers. Batted .304 in World Series against Cardinals. Homered in Game 2 off Nelson Briles. Hit three grand slam home runs in 1969. Missed the last 66 games of the 1970 season after tearing ligaments in his left ankle. Hit three home runs in a game against Milwaukee Brewers on June 9. Played in All-Star Game at Cincinnati and was 2-for-2. Was voted AL Designated Hitter-of-the-Year in 1975. After playing one game for the Tigers in 1977, was traded to the Rangers on April 13 for Steve Foucault. Hit three home runs in game for the Rangers on May 15, 1977 vs. Kansas City. Played for three AL clubs in 1978. Was traded by Rangers to Indians with pitcher David Clyde on February 28 for pitcher Tom Buskey and John Lowenstein. Signed with Oakland on July 5 before being traded to Blue Jays with pitcher Phil Huffman on August 15 for Rico Carty. Signed with the Mariners as a re-entry free agent and went on to have best year of his major league career in 1979. Played in all 162 games with the Mariners also having career highs in runs scored (81), hits (180), RBI (106) and at-bats (646). Was selected Mariners' Most Valuable Player and named AL comeback Player-of-the-Year by The Sporting News. Hit his 300th career home run on June 6, 1979 at the Kingdome off Jack Morris. Hit two grand slams June 23 vs. Milwaukee (off Larry Sorensen) and August 25 at Tigers Stadium (off Dan Petry). Was involved in a 11-player trade between the Mariners and Rangers on December 12, 1980. Was released by Rangers during spring training in 1981 before signing with the Pirates in May, 1981. Played for Portland of the Pacific Coast League in his last two seasons as a player. Team featured several major league veteran players reaching the end of their careers. Went on to become a minor league hitting instructor with Oakland Athletics in 1983, 84. Has had some managing experience in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1978-80. Will serve in a similar role for the Tigers as he did with the A's.

PINSON, Vada Edward
Former Outfielder

DETROIT
Batting Instructor

Height - 5:11 Bats - L
Weight - 187 Throws - L

Born - August 11, 1938, Memphis, Tenn.
Resides - Seattle, Washington

PERSONAL BACKGROUND - Graduated from McClymond H.S. (Oakland, Cal.), the same school which produced such other top athletes as Frank Robinson, Curt Flood, and Bill Russell.

PRO CAREER - Hit .367 at Visalia, Cal., in his second pro season. Began his distinguished 18-year major career with Cincinnati Reds in 1959 and became one of only 12 players to have over 200 hits in his rookie season. Led 1965 and 1969 National League outfielders in fielding. Ranked in the top five among the all-time Reds in the following categories: games (1,565), at bats (6,365), runs (978), hits (1,881), doubles (342), triples (96), home runs (186), total bases (2,973), RBI's (814), and stolen bases (221). Was inducted into the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame in 1977. Was selected to four National League All-Star teams and played in three (1959, second game, and 1960, both games). Played with the Cincinnati Reds in the 1961 World Series. Also played with Cardinals, Indians, Angels, and Royals before retiring at end of 1975 season. Finished his career with 2757 hits placing him 32nd on the all-time list. Returned to Seattle (he hit.343 for Rainiers of PCL in 1958) as member of original Mariner coaching staff under Darrell Johnson in 1977. Remained through 1980 campaign, then spent 1981 on Tony LaRussa's White Sox staff, before rejoining Mariners in 1982, remaining in the organization for three more years. Will make his Tiger debut in 1985 as a hitting instructor with the parent club.

RECOMMENDED/SIGNED BY - Ed Katalinas (Tigers)
HOW OBTAINED - Tigers fifth choice in 1976 June draft.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND - Graduated from Highland Park H.S. in St. Paul, Minn. in 1973. Attended Brigham Young University. Married Carolyn Blake. Two children, Austin Scott, born May 9, 1981 and Erik John, born May 14, 1983.

PRO CAREER - 1979: Overcame arm trouble of the previous two seasons to win 17 games, tying him for the American League lead among right-handers, with Steve Comer of Texas and Dennis Eckersley of Boston. Fifth in the American League in winning percentage (.708), ERA (3.28) and tied for fifth in wins (17); 1980: Became the first Tiger pitcher to win 16 or more games back-to-back since Mickey Lolich (1973-74). Pitched a one-hitter at Minnesota August 21. 1981: Tied for American League lead in wins (14) second in innings pitched (198), starts (25) and third in complete games (15). Pitched two scoreless innings in the All-Star game at Cleveland. Finished third in Cy Young award voting; Named AL Pitcher-of-the-Year by the Sporting News; 1982: Second in complete games (17), third in innings pitched (266) tied for fifth in games started (37). Pitched a two-hitter against Oakland September 5; 1983: Led American League in innings pitched (294), second in both games started (37) and complete games (20), fourth in wins (20) and tenth in ERA (3.34), had just three victories on June 1 but bounced back in fine fashion to become Tiger first 20-game winner since Joe Coleman in 1973, shutout was six-hitter against Rangers on September 1, finished third in Cy Young Award voting (behind Lamarr Hoyt and Dan Quisenberry); needs 12 victories to reach 100 for a career. 1984: Tied for second in American League in wins (19), tied for fourth in games started (35) and ninth in winning percentage (.633). Pitched the first Tiger no-hitter since Jim Bunning in 1958 when he performed feat against White Sox in Chicago on April 7 in a nationally televised game. He struck out eight and walked six during this gem and started an inning ended doubleplay with the bases loaded and the game also on the line. Was AL Pitcher-of-the-Month in April. Was 10-1 with a 1.79 ERA at the end of May and appeared to be a shoo-in for the Cy Young Award at that time before suffering arm problems and began to struggle. Beat the Brewers on June 24 for his 100th big league victory. Pitched two scoreless innings in All-Star Game in San Francisco. Beat every AL club except Baltimore and Boston. Has 86 victories over last five-year period, ranking him second in baseball behind Steve Carlton (88). Reverted back to early season form in post-season play. Was winning pitcher in Game 1 of Championship Series vs. Royals allowing one run in seven innings. Pitched complete game triumphs over the Padres in Games 1 and 4 of the World Series winning 3-2 and 4-2 respectively striking out 13.

ABBREVIATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

PLAYERS INCLUDED IN BOOK - All players in organization as of February 1, 1985.

MOST-USED LINEUPS (IN BACK OF BOOK) - Players who played most games at each position for respective teams in 1984, pitchers who started most games for that team (St) and pitchers who appeared in most games as relievers (Rel) for that team.

POSITIONS PLAYED - Primary position for that player that season. A secondary position is listed only if player played that position in 10 or more games or half an many games as his primary position. Some players played 10 or more games at three or four positions, but only two most-played positions are listed.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING RECORDS - Tenures with other organizations are denoted by nickname of team in parentheses. Information under "Finish" refers to standing of club in league or in division (Div). When two numbers are listed, first number is finish in first half of split-season, second number is for second-half finish. "In playoffs" means team competed in post-season play. The results of post-season play are listed in games: "2G to 0" means two games to none in a best-of-three playoff. Double asterisks in manager's player record indicate he was player-manager that season; single asterisk indicates player-coach.
